SUBMISSION INFORMATION

Peer-Reviewed Manuscripts

3,000-6,000 words

These are science reports of wilderness-related research. It is strongly advised the Results (factual) and Discussion (interpretive) sections be kept separate to enhance clarity; sections reporting recommendations and implications are encouraged. Peer-reviewed manuscripts must have an Abstract of 50 to 100 words, in which objectives, methods, and major findings are clearly summarized. Photos, with figure captions illustrating key points in the submitted text, are strongly encouraged.

Feature Manuscripts; Editor-Reviewed

3,000-6,000 words

These are reports of wilderness-related stewardship, planning, management, international, and education issues. Sections reporting recommendations and implications are encouraged. Photos, with figure captions illustrating key points in the submitted text, are strongly encouraged.

Commentaries

500-2,000 words

Commentaries consist of a reasoned argument (approximately 500-2,000 words) on an important wilderness or conservation issue, such as policy, emerging issues, partner, and program development.

Social Media, Film Reviews, and Book Reviews

Reviews of digital content, book reviews, film reviews, special events, and other content are welcome by IJW. Proposed reviews are solicited and managed by the Digital Review editor, Patrick Kelly (patrick.ram.kelly@gmail.com).

Photos with figure captions illustrating key points and information are strongly encouraged for all submissions. Longer articles will be considered through consultation with the Editor.

Style & Form

Manuscripts must be submitted in final form. The author is responsible for accuracy of data, names, quotations, citations, and statistical analysis. Submissions from the U.S.A. will use English units, followed by metric units in parenthesis. Submissions from outside the U.S.A. will feature metric followed by English units in parenthesis.

First Submission

An electronic version of the manuscript and cover letter should be submitted to the Editor via email. All accompanying tables, charts, and photo captions should be included.

Final Submission

Once manuscripts have been reviewed, accepted, and review comments have been incorporated, the final manuscript should be submitted electronically via e-mail. Paragraphs must be double-spaced. Subheadings are desirable. Article titles should be short and explicit. The title, author's name(s), and the abstract (if peer-reviewed) should be found at the top of the first page.

About the Author

A photo of the author, waist up and outdoors should be sent with each final manuscript submission. At the end of the final manuscript, please include a one-sentence biography for each author with affiliation, location, mailing address, telephone number, and e-mail address.

Figures and Tables

All figures, tables, and other graphics (e.g. as pie charts, maps, bar graphs, etc.,) should be submitted electronically as separate files. Files should be as high resolution (e.g.300 dpi or higher) as possible. Captions should be listed at the very end of the manuscript and keyed to numbered figures, tables, and graphics.

Literature Citations

Cite references parenthetically at the appropriate location in the text by author and year (Hendee 1995). List all references alphabetically by senior author, and in chronological order for multiple publications by the same author, at the end of the article. Do not use footnotes or endnotes. Citations should include full name(s) of authors, year of publication, title, source, publisher, and place of publication.
